

Policy

4-8061 Library Acquisitions

The purpose of the library collections is to support the mission of the College by providing books, journals, non-print media, and information in other formats. The library will acquire and organize its collections in compliance with Board Policy 4030, Academic Freedom – Faculty and guided by the first two provisions of the American Library Association Library Bill of Rights:

1. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
2. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
