Turlock Leadership Visits MJC

April 25, 2005

MODESTO, CA – Members of the Turlock Chamber of Commerce’s “Leadership Turlock” Class of 2004-05 spent a day touring the East and West Campuses of Modesto Junior College (MJC) as part of the Higher Education Day activities led by Abe Rojas, Trustee/Board Member for the Yosemite Community College District (YCCD) and by Dr. James H. Williams, newly-named YCCD Chancellor. Leadership Turlock consists of men and women who have a sincere commitment, motivation and interest in serving the community.

The four-hour tour highlighted seven areas at MJC, which included the Great Valley Museum, Science Labs, Agriculture Nursery and Greenhouse, Allied Health Nursing training facility, the newly built Mary Stuart Rogers Student Center, vocational education programs such as the Integrated Manufacturing Lab and MJC’s 62-acre Beckwith Ranch.
