The Cesar Chavez Inspiration – “The Invincible Will”

April 1, 2005

MODESTO, CA – The 1st Annual Cesar Chavez Inspiration Celebration – “The Invincible Will,” will take place on Tuesday, April 12, 2005, from 12 p.m. to 2:00 pm, on Modesto Junior College’s East Campus Quad. The main goal of the event is to celebrate the legacy that Cesar Chavez left of respect, dignity, justice and community service. This free event will feature speakers, mariachi, food and information booths.

The event will feature three speakers, Maria Elena Serna, San Joaquin Delta College Trustee who served as a United Farm Workers representative and legislative chair for San Joaquin County; Virginia Madueño, Riverbank’s first Latina City Councilwoman and President of IMAGEN, LLC a public relations and marketing firm; and Luis Molina, School Readiness Coordinator for Stanislaus County Children and Families Commission. Each speaker will discuss their struggles and triumphs on the ladder to success and highlight the importance that Cesar Chavez played in their lives as an inspiration or role model.
