Revised December 2015

PREFACE

The Leadership Team Handbook has been prepared to provide Leadership Team members a ready reference to provide basic information regarding policies and procedures of the Yosemite Community College District as well as California codes related to community college administrator employment. Although an attempt has been made not to differentiate between classified, confidential, and academic employees, it was necessary in some areas to note the differences because of applicable Education Code sections.

There are many references in this Handbook to YCCD Board Policies and Procedures. It is advised to review these references online at www.yosemite.edu/trustees/BoardPolicy.htm.

Central Services and College administration and members of the Leadership Team Advisory Council (LTAC) are available to provide additional information on specific questions not addressed in the Handbook.

As the Yosemite Community College District continues to achieve its objectives, it must have well-informed managers. It is to this goal that this Handbook is dedicated.

The Leadership Team Handbook is to be reviewed annually by LTAC in conjunction with YCCD Human Resources. Any changes to employment practices concerning the Leadership Team will be addressed through the Meet-and-Confer process and memorialized in the handbook.

Compiled by the Leadership Team Advisory Council (LTAC) as a reference manual for the YCCD Leadership Team.

b. Continuation of Group Health Plan Coverage Under COBRA:

Upon the death of the retiree, the surviving spouse, at his/her own expense and subject to carrier approval, may continue to participate in the District's medical benefits program until the surviving spouse's remarriage or death.

Upon separation from the District, Leadership Team member will be notified of COBRA coverage options.

7. District-paid Health Insurance for Retirees Age 65 to 70

This section pertains to employees hired prior to July 1, 2004. Employees hired on or after July 1, 2004, are covered only to age 65.

- a. Prior to the retiree reaching age 65, it is important to contact the Social Security Administration to coordinate Medicare A and B enrollment. Once approved for Medicare A and B, the District's Benefits Office will need a copy of the Medicare card.
- b. It is to the retiree's advantage to purchase both Medicare A and B - as health coverage premiums are based on the retiree at age 65 having Medicare A and B. If Medicare A and B is not purchased, you will incur lifetime penalties from the Social Security Administration and may result in your having to participate in the premium cost.
- c. The District will pay the premium associated with the integration of Medicare and the District's health plan until the retiree reaches age 70 or death, whichever occurs first.
- d. Medicare becomes the primary carrier and the selected District's health plan will be the secondary coverage.
- e. Retirees do not need to apply for Medicare's prescription coverage, the District has determined that the prescription coverage offered through your selected health plan is as good as the standard Medicare prescription coverage; you can keep this coverage and not pay extra if you later decide to enroll in Medicare's prescription coverage. You will receive separate prescription I.D. cards from the health provider.
- f. Please note District paid medical benefits apply to the retiree and spouse only; should the retiree have eligible dependents, the retiree will incur a portion of the premium cost.
- g. After age 70, the retiree may continue to purchase the District's health coverage until death. Upon the death of the retiree, the surviving spouse, at his/her own expense and subject to carrier approval, may continue to participate in the District's medical benefits program until the surviving spouse's remarriage or death.

H. Performance Evaluation Procedures (Educational Administrators, Classified Administrators, and Confidentials)

1. Philosophy and Purpose

- 1.1 The evaluation of administrators is designed to recognize excellence in administration, to strengthen performance, to designate areas needing improvement, and to foster the growth and development of administrators in meeting the educational needs of faculty, staff and students engaged in the process of teaching and learning.
- 1.2 The administrator appraisal process is an on-going communications process. The process provides an overall evaluation of an administrator's work performance and an opportunity for the supervisor (evaluator) and administrator (evaluatee) to discuss the administrator's work performance in terms of the District's and Colleges' goals and objectives.

2. Evaluation Tools

- 2.1 Administrators (evaluatees) are evaluated using three tools: Measurable Goals Form, Job Performance Appraisal Form, and Evaluation Survey Form. Effective administrators possess strong communication skills, leadership, teamwork, professional knowledge and expertise, administrative skills, and diversity/cultural proficiency leadership.
  - a. The Measurable Goals Form helps the evaluatee (in conjunction with their supervisor) to annually target improved job performance through development of personal and departmental goals.
  - b. The Job Performance Appraisal Form is a measuring tool for both the District and the evaluatee. The Job Performance Appraisal Form establishes the criteria against which the employee is assessed and evaluated. Areas of strength and areas where performance improvement may be required or desired are highlighted for the employee.
  - c. The Evaluation Survey Form is completed by up to 20 co-workers, students, or community members as determined by the administrator (evaluatee) and immediate supervisor (evaluator).
    - a. For Certificated Administrators, in accordance with article 6.13 in the YFA Contract, the Evaluation Survey Form will be offered to all division faculty.

3. Frequency of Implementation

3.0 Semiannual Review: During First Year of Employment as an Administrator

Immediate supervisor (evaluator) and evaluatee will meet twice during evaluatee's first year of contract for the purpose of the following:

- a. Discuss evaluation process.
- b. Review District and College goals.
- c. Develop annual administrator goals and related objectives (Measurable Goals Form).
- d. Review job description and identify current major responsibilities and skill areas.

3.1 Annual Review: Measurable Goals

Each year, evaluatees will review their Measurable Goals with their immediate supervisor (evaluator) and complete the following:

- a. Review progress toward goals and adjust as needed.

3.2 Second Year Review: Add Job Performance Appraisal Form

Immediate supervisor (evaluator) and evaluatee meet for the purpose of the following:

- a. Formal evaluation using Job Performance Appraisal Form on previous year's performance only.
- b. Review past year's goals and establish new or revised goals for the subsequent year.

3.3 Third Year Review: Measurable Goals

Each year, evaluatees will review their Measurable Goals with their immediate supervisor (evaluator) and complete the following:

- b. Review progress toward goals and adjust as needed.

3.4 Fourth Year Review: Add Evaluation Survey Form

Immediate supervisor (evaluator) and evaluatee meet for the purpose of the following:

- a. Formal evaluation using Job Performance Appraisal Form on previous year's performance only.
- b. Review past year's goals and establish new or revised goals for the subsequent year.
- c. Conduct Evaluation Survey with peers using Evaluation Survey Form.

4. Instructions for Evaluation Tools

4.1 Measurable Goals Form- see form.

4.2 Job Performance Appraisal Form- Use the following rubric to complete this form.

- a. Exceeds Expectations - Evaluatee exhibits a high level of performance, often going above and beyond base duties. Leader is proactive and displays vision in these areas.
- b. Meets Expectations - Evaluatee successfully performs the duties in these areas as required by their job description.
- c. Below Expectations* - Evaluatee is not meeting job performance expectations and needs to improve in these areas.
- d. No Basis for Judgment - Evaluator has no knowledge of this aspect of evaluatee's duties or the question is not applicable.

\ When Below Expectations is marked on the Job Performance Appraisal Form, specific written comments are mandatory. Furthermore, measurable goals and targets for improving the administrator's performance should be attainable and mutually agreed upon.*

4.3 Evaluation Survey Form- The Evaluation Survey is a tool for the immediate supervisor's appraisal of the administrator's performance to be used in conjunction with the Job Performance Appraisal. Survey results will be shared with the evaluatee. The Evaluation Survey Form will be sent out using Survey Monkey, assuring anonymity.

- a. Selection of Stakeholders: The immediate supervisor (evaluator) and evaluatee will prepare a list of up to 20 individuals (stakeholders) to participate in the evaluation survey. The stakeholders identified should include persons within the evaluatee's sphere of influence and/or persons who are knowledgeable of the evaluatee's work, including any full-time faculty and/or part-time faculty in a particular division or department, staff, peers, students, and, where appropriate, community members.
- b. All efforts should be made to ensure the diversity among stakeholders reviewing are both representative of the diversity of California and sensitive to equal employment opportunity and diversity concerns.
- c. Evaluation Survey Timeline: Each stakeholder will be asked to complete the online Evaluation Survey Form. Stakeholders will be allowed two weeks to respond. Surveys will only be sent out once, regardless of responses received.

Note: Negative unsupported comments not pertinent to the job duties of the administrator (evaluatee) will not be placed in an employee's official Personnel File.

5. Recourse for Unsatisfactory Review or Negative Comments

- 5.1 Administrators, who receive an unsatisfactory evaluation or negative comments during the evaluation process, may provide a written response within 10 days to be attached to the evaluation prior to it being placed in the administrator's personnel folder.

Effective January 2014, Team members who still have excess vacation leave will cease to accrue vacation until such time the balance is reduced below the maximum allowed accrual.

17. Maternity Leave

A maternity leave may be granted to a female team member during the period of time she must absent herself from her duties because of disability resulting from pregnancy or convalescence following childbirth or miscarriage. The Team member may elect to utilize her accumulated sick leave during her period of physical disability, provided the duration of disability and convalescence following childbirth are certified by her physician (Pregnancy Disability Leave (PDL)).

In California, a pregnant employee is entitled to Pregnancy Disability Leave (PDL) of up to four months. An eligible California Family Rights Act (CFRA) employee can then take 12 weeks of CFRA baby bonding leave. The first 12 weeks of PDL can run concurrently with Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave for eligible employees, and for that period, the employer must maintain health benefits.

The basic minimum leave duration is two weeks for CFRA-only baby bonding leave. However, a request for leave of less than two weeks duration on two separate occasions will be granted. If both a husband and wife work for the District, both married employees have 12 weeks of CFRA leave each in the event of a birth, adoption, or foster care placement.

18. Family and Medical Leave

State and federal law permit eligible employees to request an unpaid leave:

- upon the birth or adoption of the son or daughter of the employee or upon placement with the employee for foster care (baby bonding time); or
- when the employee's spouse, domestic partner, son, daughter or parent has a serious health condition and requires care from the employee.

The law also gives an employee job protected unpaid leave for their own serious illness. Eligible employees are entitled to a total of twelve (12) work weeks of unpaid leave during any twelve (12) month period. For more information contact the Human Resources Operations office.

a. Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) - Eligibility

You may be eligible for an unpaid family care and medical leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and the California Family Rights Act (CFRA), if you have more than 12-months of service with the District and have worked at least 1,250 hours in the 12-month period before the date you want to begin your leave.

If possible, you should provide at least 30 days advance notice for foreseeable events (such as the expected birth of a child or a planned medical treatment for yourself or your family member). For events which are unforeseeable, notify your direct supervisor and Human Resources, at least verbally, as soon as you learn of the need for the leave. Failure to comply with these notice rules is grounds for, and may result in, deferral of the requested leave until you comply with this notice policy.

Human Resources may require certification from your health care provider before allowing you a leave of pregnancy or your own serious health condition or certification from the health care provider of your child, parent or spouse who has a serious health condition before allowing you a leave to take care of that family member. When medically necessary, leave may be taken on an intermittent or reduced work schedule, but you may need to be temporarily transferred.

If you are taking a leave for the birth, adoption or foster care placement of a child, the basic minimum duration of the leave is two weeks and you must conclude the leave within one year of the birth or placement for adoption or foster care.

Taking a family care or pregnancy disability leave may impact your benefits. With certain exceptions, you will be able to resume your position or a comparable position at the end of the leave. If you want more information regarding your eligibility for a leave and/or the impact of the leave on your job, seniority and benefits, please contact Human Resources Operations.

A representative(s) of the Leadership Team Advisory Council will assist Team members in the resolution of the complaint.

Complaint File

A record of individual complaints and decisions relating thereto will be maintained in a file separate from the employee's personnel file, unless the complaint results in disciplinary action of a Team member.

L. EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS (EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS)

S. MANAGEMENT POST-RETIREMENT EMPLOYMENT OPTIONS

1. Post-retirement Employment Agreement

After completing ten (10) years of full-time satisfactory service in the Yosemite Community College District and attaining the age 55 of an Educational (STRS) Team member or age 50 for a Classified (PERS) Team member, a Team member would become eligible to request a post-retirement employment agreement, subject to the following conditions, eligibility requirements, and approval of the Board of Trustees.

It should be noted that Senate Bill 1021, which became effective July 27, 2012, and the Public Employees' Pension reform Act of 2013 (PEPRA), which became effective January 1, 2013, made extensive reforms to CalPERS and CalSTRS pensions relating to post-retirement employment. Team members are advised to contact their applicable pension program for information on the impact of post-retirement employment agreements on their pension.

- a. The Team member must have retired from regular employment with the District.
- b. As a condition of initial employment, the retiree may be asked to submit a medical certificate showing that he/she is free from any disabling disease unfitting him/her to associate with students. The medical certificate shall be completed and submitted directly to the District by a licensed physician. A medical exam shall be required for completion of the medical certificate. Such examination shall be conducted not more than six months before the completion and submission of the certificate and shall be at the expense of the retiree. [\[Education Code §87408.5\]](#)
- c. The retiree agrees to render services as assigned by the District at times established by the District.
- d. For non-teaching assignments within the retiree's former job classification, the District agrees to pay the retiree for each day worked at a daily rate of pay (or prorated portion thereof) based upon the range and step placement of the retiree in the fiscal year of retirement, including subsequent cost-of-living salary adjustments. For teaching services requiring certification, the retiree shall be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the certificated part-time hourly salary schedule (maximum Step 10), including subsequent cost-of-living salary adjustments. Teaching assignments will not exceed 67% percent of the hours per week considered a full-time assignment for regular employees having comparable duties, either on a semester or academic year basis. In addition, the District reserves the right to offer a lesser rate of pay consistent with the nature of duties and responsibilities assigned. For STRS retirees, the total annual salary under this agreement shall not exceed statutory limitations. For PERS retirees, total workdays and/or hours shall not exceed statutory limitations.

- e. Duration of post-retirement employment agreements shall not exceed one (1) fiscal year. Said agreements may be renewed at the sole discretion of the District on a year-to-year basis. The District reserves the right to terminate the agreement for cause.
- f. With the exception of income protection coverage and supplemental life insurance coverage, the District will continue health and welfare benefits as though the retired person were on regular full-time employment, subject to acceptance/approval of the carriers.
- g. This option may be enacted only upon the written request of a retired manager who meets the eligibility requirements and agrees to the conditions above. Requests shall be submitted to the College President or appropriate Central Services administrator and, if approved, will be forwarded to the Chancellor. If approved by the Chancellor, the request will be presented to the Board of Trustees.

APPENDIX A: ACCCA Statement of Ethics

ACCCA Statement of Ethics

A Definition of Ethics

Ethical behavior is often defined as "right or "good" behavior as measured against commonly accepted rules of conduct for a society or for a profession. The ethical person is often described in absolute terms as one who is fair, honest, straightforward, trustworthy, dispassionate and unprejudiced. If, however, one is inconsistently fair or honest, one loses credibility and is perceived to be unethical. The ethical person must be conspicuously consistent in the exercise of integrity to sustain the credibility that is an expectation of office.

Importance of Ethics

The credibility of college administrators depends upon whether they are perceived as honest men and women. If integrity contributes to credibility, then ethical behavior is a singular prerequisite to successful management. When people are convinced that public institutions are administered by honest individuals, questions of credibility and demands for public accountability rarely arise.

Statements of ethical standards do not necessarily ensure ethical behavior. Yet public statements of intent surely create an expectation that public officials will indeed act with integrity in the public interest.

Expectations for Ethical Behavior

Administrators of community colleges shall be committed to the principles of honesty and equity. They shall not seek to abridge for any purpose the freedoms of faculty, staff and students. At the same time, they shall not willingly permit the right and privileges of any members of the college community to override the best interests of the public served by the college.

As appointed managers of the college community, administrators shall exercise judgments that are dispassionate, fair, consistent and equitable. They shall exhibit openness and reliability in what they say and do as leaders. They shall confront issues and people without prejudice. They shall do everything they can to demonstrate a commitment to excellence in education and without compromise to the principles of ethical behavior.

The consistent exercise of integrity is ethical behavior.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF ADMINISTRATORS

Administrators respond to many constituencies: to elected or appointed governing boards; to colleague administrators, faculty and staff; to their professions; and to the students and the community. The following statements of responsibilities are intended as guidelines:

- I. With respect to students, the community college administrator has the responsibility:
  - a. To provide and protect student access to the educational resources of the community college.

- b. To protect human dignity and individual freedom, and assure that students are respected as individuals, as learners, and as independent decision-makers.
  - c. To invite students to participate in the established shared governance process.
  - d. To protect students from disparagement, embarrassment or capricious judgment.
  - e. To keep foremost in mind at all times that the college exists to serve students.
- II. With respect to colleagues and staff, the community college administrator has the responsibility:
  - a. To develop a climate of trust and mutual support through the established shared governance processes.
  - b. To foster openness by encouraging and maintaining two-way communication.
  - c. To encourage, support and abide by written policies and procedures and to communicate clearly to all staff members the conditions of employment, work expectations and evaluation procedures.
  - d. To provide opportunities for professional growth.
  - e. To provide due process with opportunity for appeal and review of employee evaluation.
  - f. To challenge unethical behavior in a timely manner.
- III. With respect to the governing board, the community college administrator has the responsibility:
  - a. To keep the board informed so that it can act in the best interests of the district and the public.
  - b. To act in the best interest of the district.
  - c. To be guided by the principles and policies established by the board.
  - d. To represent the board in official statements only when formally designated to do so.
- IV. With respect to the profession, the community college administrator has the responsibility:
  - a. To improve performance through participation in professional activities.
  - b. To be informed about developments in education in general and in the community college in particular.
  - c. To encourage and assist new professionals toward growth and effectiveness.
- V. With respect to the community, the community college administrator has the responsibility:
  - a. To remain continuously informed of the characteristics, preferences and educational needs of the local community.
  - b. To be sensitive to individuals from diverse backgrounds.
  - c. To encourage and stimulate communications with community groups.

RIGHTS AND DUE PROCESS

A community college administrator should have the right:

1. To be considered for employment without regard to race, sex, religion, creed, age, national origin, disability or sexual orientation;
2. To a clear written statement of the philosophy, goals and objectives of the district.
3. To a written contract identifying terms and conditions of employment.
4. To work in a setting of institutional support and a climate of professional respect.
5. To be assigned authority commensurate with responsibilities and resources adequate to carry out assigned functions.
6. To act independently within the scope of authority to carry out responsibilities assigned.
7. To perform duties and carry out responsibilities without disruption or harassment.
8. To be provided with legal and financial protection from liability in carrying out duties of the position.
9. To participate in formulating and implementing institutional policy at a level appropriate for the position held.
10. To speak for the institution at the level of assigned authority.
11. To participate in professional associations.
12. To confidentiality regarding personal matters.
13. To participate in and to be supported at an appropriate level in activities providing for professional growth such as career advancement and promotion, sabbatical leaves, other leaves, and conference attendance.
14. To loyal support from supervisors for the proper performance of work assigned.
15. To be evaluated in a professional manner on a regular and systemic basis, and to receive adequate notice of dissatisfaction with performance or action to terminate in accordance with existing statutes.
16. To due process in accordance with written procedures which are communicated to the administrator prior to appointment.
