Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee's 11th Annual Report

MODESTO, CA – The Yosemite Community College District (YCCD) Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee's (CBOC) 11th Annual Report for the period of July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2016 was presented to the YCCD Board of Trustees at their January Board meeting.

In the report, Larry McElhaney, CBOC Chair, wrote, "This annual report of the CBOC serves to inform the community regarding the status of bond projects and assure that Measure E Bond funds are spent in accordance with original bond measure requirements. Measure E Bond expenditures continue to meet the requirements of Article XIII A, Section 1(b)(3) of the California Constitution as confirmed by oversight from the YCCD Board of Trustees and the CBOC, as well as annual independent audits."

YCCD's Measure E Bond, which passed in November 2004, was a $326.1 million bond measure for improvements at Columbia College, Modesto Junior College, and to increase access to educational opportunities in outreach areas.

The following Measure E projects were completed or scheduled to be completed by the end of 2016:

MODESTO JUNIOR COLLEGE

- West Campus - Loop Road Area #3
- West Campus - Loop Road Area #4
- West Campus - Loop Road Area #5
- West Campus - Brink Entry Area #6

COLUMBIA COLLEGE
