Classes Expected to Resume Thursday at all YCCD Campuses

MODESTO, CA – All classes are expected to resume Thursday at Modesto Junior College and Columbia College. The Yosemite Community College District Board released these statistics related to the November 27-28 strike by members of the Yosemite Faculty Association:

Modesto Junior College:

- About 2,600 classes were canceled
- More than 18,000 students were not able to attend their scheduled class

Columbia College:

- 160 classes were canceled
- 99 classes were held as scheduled
- 2,067 students were not able to attend their scheduled class

At both campuses, students were able to access computer labs and the libraries to keep pace with their studies and research assignments.

Students with questions should call their respective campuses: MJC (209) 575-6789 or Columbia (209) 588-5100 during regular business hours.
