

Policy

2430.1 Delegation of Authority to the Presidents

Modesto Junior College and Columbia College each has its own President, who serves as Chief Executive Officer of the college subject to the direction and supervision of the Chancellor, and the Board policies and administrative procedures of the District. Each President reports to and is under the authority of the District’s Chancellor. Each President is responsible for implementing their College’s strategic plan and applicable District Board policies and administrative procedures.

The Chancellor directs, supervises, and evaluates the College Presidents. The Chancellor delegates the following authority to the College Presidents, subject to the Chancellor’s supervision and evaluation:

- The executive responsibility for leading and directing all College operations.
- The establishment of administrative practices necessary for the operation of the College.
- The establishment of administrative organization at the College.

A new College President shall be evaluated annually, unless otherwise dictated by the contract, according to his/her/their employment agreement on all duties specifically required or assigned to him/her/them by the Chancellor, District policy, employment agreement, and job description.

Cross References (see also):

YCCD Policy 2430 – Delegation of Authority to the Chancellor

References:

ACCJC Accreditation Standard IV.B.1 & IV.B.2

Adopted: August 14, 2013

Revision Adopted: ~~March 9, 2016~~, February 14, 2024

Last Reviewed: ~~March 9, 2016~~, February 14, 2024