4400 Community Service Classes (Community Education)

The Colleges of the District may offer community service classes, also referred to as community education or personal enrichment offerings, in subject matter areas that in content or depth of treatment are not appropriate for College credit.

Offerings are permitted in civic, vocational, literacy, health, homemaking, technical and general education, including, but not limited to, classes in the fields of music, drama, art, handicraft, science, literature, nature study, nature contacting, aquatic sports and athletics.

Offerings shall be designed to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic, and/or civic development of the individuals or groups enrolled.

Offerings shall be open for admission to adults and minors who can benefit from the programs.

No General Fund monies may be expended to establish or maintain offerings. Students enrolling in offerings shall be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining the classes. Classes may also be offered for remuneration by contract or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.
